

Better Health for Better Wealth Workshops

Focusing on livestock health issues that matter to you and your region!

When? Thursday 16 June 2022

Where? Cummins Bowling Club

RSVP by Thursday 9 June 2022 via EventBrite the QR code below or contacting Pene on information below.

The cost of this event is free to producers thanks to the Department of Primary Industries and Region's Red Meat and Wool Growth Program.

- Lunch provided from 12pm -

Join us for the workshop from 12:30 pm

SHEEP

12.30pm to 4.00pm

Sheep health on the Eyre Peninsula—what to look for and how to prevent

Dr Greg Sezun, Vets on Eyre

Sheep traceability— NLIS database, LPA, NVD's and buying sheep from interstate

PIRSA

Best Practice management for sheep

Dr Greg Sezun, Vets on Eyre

Footrot management - a whole state issue, and OJD update

PIRSA

For more information:

Pene Keynes

pkeynes@livestocksa.org.au

0401 798 224

Register via this QR code

The South Australian Livestock Biosecurity Extension Project has been made possible by the Department of Primary Industries and Regions' Red Meat and Wool Growth Program and Animal Health Australia through the National Sheep Industry Biosecurity Strategy 2019-2024