

Recognise and celebrate individuals, or groups in South Australia who demonstrate outstanding on-farm biosecurity practices and act as positive advocates for biosecurity within their local networks and industry.

Nominee
Full name:
Business:
Email:
Mobile:
Location:

Nominator
Full name:
Email:
Mobile:

1. Demonstrates a strong commitment to biosecurity planning, including the development, implementation, and regular review of a current farm biosecurity plan tailored to their property or business.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

-
-
-
-
-

BIOSECURITY FARMER OF THE YEAR

3. Maintains accurate and relevant records that provide evidence of biosecurity activities, such as staff training, standard operating procedures, livestock movements, visitor logs, and monitoring activities

4. Shows a high level of understanding and practical application of animal health and welfare principles, integrating biosecurity into overall farm management and decision-making.

BIOSECURITY FARMER OF THE YEAR

5. Engages constructively with other producers, industry bodies, service providers, and/or government agencies, and actively supports the promotion of good biosecurity practices by sharing knowledge, leading by example, and encouraging biosecurity awareness within their community.

6. Demonstrates innovation or continuous improvement in biosecurity practices, including the adoption of new technologies, systems, or approaches that enhance biosecurity effectiveness and on-farm resilience. (Optional)

BIOSECURITY FARMER OF THE YEAR

Terms and Conditions:

By submitting this nomination, you agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. The nominee has been informed of this nomination and consents to its submission.
2. Both the nominee and the nominator consent to being contacted by Livestock SA for purposes related to the nomination, selection, and award process.
3. A farm visit may be arranged as part of the selection process. The nominee agrees to participate and facilitate reasonable access for this visit.
4. Livestock SA will coordinate on-farm videography and photography during October to document and celebrate the award recipient. By participating, the award recipient grants permission for the resulting materials to be presented at the Livestock SA Industry Dinner and used by Livestock SA for promotional and marketing purposes across various platforms, including digital, print, and social media.
5. The winner will be invited to accept their award at the Livestock SA Industry Dinner on 19 November in Adelaide. Accommodation will be available if required and must be confirmed in advance.
6. All personal information collected as part of the nomination process will be handled in accordance with applicable privacy laws and Livestock SA policies. This information may be used for communication, coordination, and promotional purposes related to the award.
7. Nominators or nominees may withdraw their participation at any stage, prior to the closing of the nomination period, by notifying Livestock SA in writing. However, withdrawal may affect eligibility for the award and inclusion in promotional activities.

Please acknowledge and tick the following:

- ☐ I have read and agree to all the Terms and Conditions
- ☐ The nominee has been informed and agreed to this nomination
- ☐ I consent to being contacted by Livestock SA

Please submit this nomination via email to Tanya Dobrijevic at tdobrijevic@livestocksa.com.au

For more information, visit:

<https://livestocksa.com.au/livestocksa-projects/biosecurity/biosecurity-farmer-of-the-year>